FCUL Service Group, Inc. Extends Agreement to Provide CUs with Discounted Services

In a continued effort to save credit unions money, the FCUL Service Group recently negotiated a new five-year agreement with long-time business partner, Office Depot. The renewed contract solidifies another five years of discounted office supplies and more for credit unions nationwide.

“The Office Depot online service allows me to shop for what I need at the best price, and I never have to leave the building,” said Jessica Helm, Administrative Assistant at Rimrock Credit Union in Billings Montana.

The Service Group’s partnership with Office Depot was designed to help credit unions maximize savings through national, collaborative buying power. Through the Business Solutions Division (BSD) Program, account holders save hundreds of dollars on select office merchandise with no service fees to pay. Credit unions continue to benefit from the program as an efficient, cost-effective solution for office supplies, breakroom supplies, promotional products, furniture, computers, printing, and more.

With this new agreement, the FCUL Service Group is launching this solution under the National Credit Union Purchasing Program. This program allows credit unions across the nation to cooperate and experience large savings on a variety of services.

“Our goal is to provide an outlet for credit unions to combine their purchasing efforts for maximum savings. This new five-year agreement with Office Depot sets the stage for long-term savings for credit unions all across the nation,” stated Marvin Garland, Chief Operating Officer of the FCUL Service Group.
